

19 August 2020

Dear Parent/Carer,

Further to a government announcement late last night, we can now inform you that, tomorrow students will receive their official statement of results for the vast majority of their examinations. This is a change from our correspondence yesterday. Students will receive the highest of their CAGs and calculated grades which will form their official statement of results.

The only exams that will be determined by CAGs at this stage are,

- Health and Social Care
- Creative iMedia
- Sports Studies

Students will receive their official calculated grade for the above subjects on Tuesday 25th August to their academy email.

We look forward to seeing as many of you tomorrow as we can.

Yours faithfully,
